

Morgan Stanley accredited as NZX Derivatives Clearing Participant

24 April 2026 – NZX advises that Morgan Stanley has been accredited as a Clearing Participant on the NZX Derivatives Market, ahead of the S&P/NZX 20 Index Futures launch on 28 April 2026.

Clearing Participants provide post-trade services including the clearing and settlement of derivatives transactions, supporting the safe and efficient functioning of the market.

NZX General Manager, Market Operations and Clearing, Felicity Gibson says NZX is pleased to welcome Morgan Stanley to the NZX Derivatives Market as a Clearing Participant.

“As a leading global financial institution, Morgan Stanley’s accreditation underpins the post-trade infrastructure supporting the S&P/NZX 20 Index Futures and is a positive step for the ongoing development of New Zealand’s derivatives market,” Ms Gibson says.

Morgan Stanley Managing Director, Listed Derivatives Execution & Clearing Services, Yanny Leung says Morgan Stanley is pleased to be accredited as a Clearing Participant on the NZX Derivatives Market.

“We look forward to supporting the development of New Zealand’s capital markets by providing clearing services that help market participants access and manage New Zealand equity exposure efficiently,” Ms Leung says
