

WasteCo announces the resignation of James Redmayne as a Director

WasteCo Group Ltd announces that James Redmayne has resigned from his role as a Director of WasteCo, effective 25 May 2026.

James has been part of WasteCo since the company was established in 2013 and has made a significant contribution to its growth and development over that time. His leadership, commitment and deep understanding of the business have helped shape WasteCo from its early beginnings into the business it is today, including supporting its transition from a privately held company to a listed entity in 2022.

The Board acknowledges James's longstanding service and valuable contribution to WasteCo over more than a decade and thanks him for the role he has played in the company's success since inception.

About WasteCo

WasteCo is a leading national waste solution company, processing and diverting liquid and solid waste from landfill. It provides comprehensive solutions for household, commercial, industrial and local authority customers.

The company provides waste and sorting options as well as waste remediation, sweeping and industrial cleaning services – all delivered using leading edge technology and highly trained customer-focused staff.

The Christchurch-based business was established in 2013.
