Ventia awarded Road Maintenance Services Contract for Far North District Council, New Zealand

Ventia Service Group Limited (ASX: VNT) has been awarded the Road Maintenance and Renewal Services contract by the Far North District Council (FNDC) New Zealand for the southern road network.

The contract is valued at approximately NZD $125 million over the initial five-year term, with extension options of three and two years (3 + 2).

Under the contract, Ventia will deliver comprehensive road network maintenance services, including pavement, structures, vegetation, and roadside assets.

Dean Banks, Managing Director and Group CEO, said the award reflects Ventia's growing role as a trusted long-term partner in road network management.

"We are proud to continue our work in New Zealand's Far North, providing safe and reliable roads for the local community," Mr Banks said.

The contract will commence on 1 July 2026.

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Ventia Disclosure Committee.
