Senior Management change – Vice President Operations

Millennium & Copthorne Hotels New Zealand Limited (NZX: MCK) advises that Mr Ken Orr will be stepping down as Vice President Operations, due to a family relocation. The company is currently in discussions with Mr Orr regarding other opportunities within the company.

Mr Orr commenced the VP Operations role in April 2021, having worked for MCK in various managerial and operational positions over 20-plus years, in Queenstown, Christchurch and Wellington, including as General Manager of Grand Millennium Auckland. Mr Orr advised that he wished to relinquish the role as he has made the decision to relocate to the South Island for family reasons.

MCK Managing Director, Mr. Stuart Harrison, said: “Ken has been a highly valued member of our senior leadership team. He was instrumental in leading our Hotels business through the tail end of the pandemic protocols and reinvigorating the business operations. On behalf of Millennium & Copthorne, I wish to thank him for his contributions to the company.”

A process will be commenced to appoint a new Vice President Operations in the coming months.
