Stride Property Group Change to Executive Team

Stride Investment Management Limited (SIML) today announced the retirement and resignation of Mark Luker General Manager, Development from the company's executive team.

SIML's Chief Executive Officer, Philip Littlewood, commented: "Mark has made a substantial contribution to Stride during his tenure, overseeing all development activities and bringing deep expertise in property development and investment. Under his leadership, Stride has successfully delivered a number of complex, largescale retail and commercial projects, each of which has strengthened our portfolio and supported the Group's long term strategy. We sincerely thank Mark for his significant contribution and wish him every success in his future endeavours."

Mark's last day at SIML will be 17 April 2026. SIML will provide the market with a further update on this role in the coming months.
