Chair and CEO Review

Group net profit after tax (NPAT) for the six months ended 31 December 2025 was $28.9 million, a record result and an increase of 20% on the prior corresponding period (pcp).

The growth in revenue and earnings was broad-based with the most notable contributions coming from the key dairy, potable and wastewater applications. Our team across the world has done an excellent job in meeting increased demand, delivering capacity improvements and navigating the impact of fluctuating tariff rates.

Recording another record result demonstrates the strong foundations of our business, as well as our clear strategy and focus. We design and manufacture products for use in applications demanding precision, high performance and conformance. We focus on understanding customers' requirements and applying deep technical knowledge and expertise to meet them. Our customers are supported by our ongoing investment in capability (people and equipment) to ensure their needs are met and our growth ambition for Skellerup is achieved.

Industrial Division

Industrial Division earnings before interest and tax (EBIT) of $25.1 million was a record result, up 12% on the pcp. Revenue was up 6% mainly due to growth in sales into potable and wastewater applications, most notably in the US but also in Australia. Sales into the roofing and construction sector in Australia and the UK were up and sales into marine foam applications in the US continued to improve. Sales into health and hygiene applications were down due to a key customer suspending production for several months to relocate their assembly operations. In addition to the impact of overall revenue growth, margin improvements attributable to product and market mix, together with sound management of indirect costs, translated to strong EBIT growth.

We continue to generate revenue growth from new products for global original equipment manufacturing (OEM) customers, and the pipeline remains healthy. We are also investing in new developments for opportunities in roofing, construction, sport and leisure applications where the quality and performance of our products and the reliability and consistency of service are highly valued. Capital investment requirements to support growth are not significant, reflecting the co-investment from customers and manufacturing partners.

Agri Division

Agri Division EBIT of $18.5 million was up 20% on the pcp. Revenue was up 21% primarily due to increased market share for dairy rubberware consumables, principally in global markets. Revenue was also boosted by a change in customer delivery terms, adjusting to exclude this, revenue increased by 18%. The growth in demand improved operational outcomes in our facilities compared to the pcp. Footwear sales into domestic and international markets were up also. The most notable impact came from increasing sales and market share for specialist footwear into the US utilities sector. Anticipated increases in raw material costs offset the impact of footwear revenue growth on EBIT.

Our investment in building a deeper development capability was key to the growth in revenue in the first half of the year and will continue to allow us to develop innovative products that provide important productivity gains for farmers around the world. In addition, and as planned, we have increased investment in our global manufacturing platform, most notably in New Zealand but also in China and the UK, to boost productivity, quality and flexibility to meet current and future growth.

Revenue	61,390	50,543	21%
Earnings before interest and taxation	18,547	15,517	20%

Cash

Group operating cash flow of $38.8 million was up 20% on the pcp. Inventory levels are being maintained above historical levels to mitigate the risks of supply chain interruptions and changes in tariffs. Inventory at the end of December 2025 was up slightly on the June 2025 year-end but below the level held 12 months earlier when stocking was first deliberately increased ahead of the anticipated introduction of tariffs. Net debt remains low at $17.5 million, representing just 5% of our total assets, and is 14% lower than 12 months prior.

Dividend

To reflect the record result and our expectations for the full year, the Board has declared an 11% increase in the interim dividend to 10.0 cents per share, imputed at 40%. The imputation rate reflects the increasing proportion of Skellerup's growth in profit being earned overseas. The dividend will be paid on 19 March 2026 to shareholders of record at 5pm on 6 March 2026.

Outlook

Global geopolitical uncertainty persists, which again makes it difficult to forecast future results. Despite this uncertainty, following the strong first half result and our assessment of near-term demand we have increased NPAT guidance for FY26 to be in the range of $57 to $62 million. Our team continues to focus on the elements we can control – designing and making innovative, quality products and servicing our customers well. Long-standing relationships with customers founded on these principles continues to provide us with a strong pipeline of opportunity. Skellerup is a global business with 82% of revenue generated from international markets in the first half of FY26. Products are manufactured at Skellerup and partner facilities across the world. We will maintain our investment in people, capability and capacity to enhance our value to customers in the markets and applications we are focused on and to deliver ongoing earnings growth for our shareholders.
