Executive Leadership Change

After four and a half years with Transpower, Executive General Manager Operations, Chantelle Bramley has resigned to take up a role back in Australia.

Chantelle's last day with Transpower is 4 December.

Transpower CEO James Kilty thanked Chantelle for her contribution "Chantelle has been a highly valued member of our Executive Leadership Team, originally leading our Customer and Strategy divisions before taking up her most recent role as Executive General Manager Operations. I am grateful for the positive impact Chantelle has had on our business and our industry, and I wish her well for the future."
